

Site Engineer

Description

A career at Jains means a life-long opportunity to explore your potential, continuous growth, and the joy of working on the latest technologies alongside the finest minds in the industry. An inspiring combination of growth prospects, continuous innovation, fair play and a great work culture makes Jains an exhilarating place to be in.

Sending DLR / DPR to the Project Engineers on daily basis

As per drawing understand and execute the Work at site

Work to be Executed at Site on Good Quality

Project Schedule to be followed

Labour Requirements Plan to be submitted to Project Incharges on daily basis

Any Quality related deviation to be highlighted to Project in charge

Ensure receiving materials at site on Good Quality

Engineer Should Maintain Good Housekeeping at site on day to day basis after Work completion

Engineers should prepare the labour / Sub contract bills for QC Completed works on 15 days cycle

Ensure Engineers should retain the contractors to Maintain the Good Quality , More no of contractors not to be changed

Monthly Materials requirements should submit to their Project Incharges.

Responsibilities

Ensure the technical aspects of the construction site are managed effectively.

Interpret and implement engineering drawings and specifications.

Oversee quality control and assurance.

Conduct site inspections and assessments.

Liaise with contractors, architects, and clients.

Resolve engineering problems on-site.

Qualifications

Relevant Experience: Min. 3+ years' experience in Industrial and Warehouse buildings. Min. 3+ years' relevant experience in Project Management Consultancy.

Education: B.E. Civil Engineering, (M.Tech Construction Management is an added advantage)

Languages: English (written & spoken), Tamil (spoken) and Hindi (spoken)

Software tools: Primavera P6 scheduling software, MS Projects, Project Management tools, MS Office, Autocad, Windows OS

Hiring organization

Titans9

Employment Type

Full-time

Date posted

July 29, 2024